Supt. is aware, comes to the Press which does the major part of the work. Under these circumstances, not only the prospective work mentioned by Mr. Chatterton, but all the Econ. Con. printing done at the Press, should be paid for by an addition to the Press Budget. In the absence of samples of forms, &c., required, it is not possible to give any idea of what this amount should be.

b) The Director of Industries has a fairly liberal grant for contingencies & printing charges. He may be permitted to get his forms &c printed at a private press or the Govt. press on payment in consultation with the Press Supdt. Since the question affects the Press the file may be submitted to the Govt. Secy also.
